L'Amy America Announces Four Optical Industry Awards!

Norwalk, Conn. – December, 2021. L'Amy America, an optical manufacturing and distribution company headquartered in Norwalk, Connecticut, is thrilled to announce the company won four optical industry awards, including EYEVOTE READER'S CHOICE FAVORITE FRAME COMPANY. Conducted by Vision Monday and 20/20 Magazine through a special survey, the 13th annual event was aimed at identifying readers' favorite products and companies in 2021. L'AMY America was honored to win in four categories, including three for their licensed brands, Champion and Nicole Miller.

The winning categories are:

Favorite Frame Company: L'AMY AMERICA

Favorite Men's Brand: CHAMPION

Favorite Women's Brand: NICOLE MILLER

Favorite Kid's Brand: CHAMPION

Stephen Rappoport, CEO, L'AMY America said, "Every day our dedicated team is working hard to provide the highest level of service and support to our retail and business partners. We are delighted to be recognized in multiple categories as we push the boundaries in product innovation, design, quality and service."

Connie Reiss, Director of Lifestyle Products, said, "Two category wins for Champion as favorite men's and favorite children's brand coincides its social media achievement having the highest consumer engagement levels, for the second year in a row, among all sport brands. As stewards of one of America's most-beloved athleticwear brands, we are most pleased to be recognized and are grateful to our loyal customers for their votes."

"We are honored that customers named Nicole Miller Favorite Women's Brand," said Cheryl Canning, Nicole Miller Brand Manager. "Listening to the needs of our retail partners and working closely with Nicole Miller to incorporate her award-winning color and design sensibilities, we strive to develop product which our retail partners and their consumers are asking for."
