

Monday, February 3, 2020

L'Amey America Debuts Limited Edition Nicole Miller Runway Collection

By Staff

Monday, February 3, 2020 12:09 AM

Quick Take: L'Amey America is debuting a limited edition collection inspired by Nicole Miller's Spring Summer 2020 runway show. The collection includes both sun and optical styles.

Specifics: Optical styles include Calais, Chamonix, Avignon and Antibes. The half rim Calais features an upswept shape with an edgy, crisscrossed design along the metal rim and Swarovski crystals. It is available in black/gold, fuchsia/rose gold and azure blue/silver. Metal Chamonix features a half rim vintage shape with crystals and an intricate design, and is available in black/gold, ivory tortoise/rose gold and azure blue/silver. Avignon is a bold, oversized acetate frame with a step down design and a sanded metal trim detail inset with four rounded crystals on the top and sides. It is available in black lace, tortoise and blush. Finally, Antibes is a thin frame featuring gold-colored crystals that gradually increase in size to the tip of the cat eye shape and colored stones on the temples that gradually diminish in size from the center. It is available in black, tortoise and amethyst stripe. The sun collection includes Marseille, Nanterre, Rouen and Strasbourg. Marseille features metalwork along the tops and sides, and is inset with squared, rounded or rectangular crystals. It also features gradient lenses and is available in black gold/brown marble gold and ivory/rose gold. Nanterre features Swarovski crystal studding along the top and beveled metal temples. It is available in black, orchid iced marble and iced marble. Rouen features floating flash lenses, a swooping bridge and edges studded with star-shaped stones. It is available in matte black, shiny gold and shiny rose gold. Finally, Strasbourg is a round frame with a double brow bar, trimmed with stars and small round stones along the rim, It is available in black/gold, tortoise/gold and purple tortoise/silver.

Selling Point: Inspired by the Nicole Miller SS20 runway show, this limited edition collection celebrates Miller's iconic joyous feminine spirit and offers modern remixes of vintage shapes.

www.lamyamerica.com