

L'Amy America Intros New Nicole Miller Styles

Quick Take: L'Amy America is introducing three new ophthalmic styles from Nicole Miller.

Specifics: The new styles are Browne, Ditmars and Delavan. Browne is a chunky, soft square shape with a multicolored semi-transparent tortoise front and crystal temples. It is available in Tortoise/gold core wire/crystal grey, Blue Tortoise/light gold core wire/crystal blue and Red Tortoise/gunmetal core wire/crystal. Ditmars is a very subtle cat eye frame with a solid colored front and rich, complimentary colored marble temples. It is available in black front with black marble temples, mulberry front with mulberry marble temples and translucent beige with beige marble temples. Finally, Delavan features a two-tone metal front with cut-out details and raised studs on soft waterfall acetate temples. It is available in semi-matte black and light gold, semi matte mulberry and rose gold, and midnight navy and rose gold.

Selling Point: The newest Nicole Miller styles are edgy and eye-catching, showing off Nicole Miller's hallmark New York City influences.
