

How to Pack for a weekend retreat

If escaping the city and finding a relaxing weekend spot is on your agenda, then it's time to get acquainted with The Artist Residence, Oxford. Nestled in the countryside and bursting with bohemian English charm, the six-bedroom residency is the perfect stop to indulge in some good old-fashioned R&R. From dinner in Mr Hanbury's Dining Room to a lazy all-day spot at the bar, the Artist Residence is the ultimate stop-off for the modern-day traveller. Those checking in for the night should be sure to pack practically. Leave the stuffy suit at home and opt instead for luxury essentials that will keep you both cosy and comfortable.

Dress down but stay sharp with this denim shirt from Calvin Klein Jeans. Swap out the derby shoes for these suede and Merino performance trainers from Brooks Brothers, and throw all of your overnight essentials into this sumptuous suede holdall from Berluti. All that's left is to sit back and switch off (your mind, not your phone – it's Instagram gold). Artist Residence, Station Road, South Leigh, Oxfordshire, OX29 6XN. artistresidence.co.uk
