ATHLETICISM ACTIVATED

You don't need to be an athlete to wear these sporty sunglasses from Champion and L'Amey America. With a powerful combination of dark blue and stark white colors, this frame is ideal for any type of activity. Flash blue lenses match the flexible and bendable temple tips that allow you to personalize this sunglass for optimum comfort or when you are ready to hit the field or court.

CHAMPION L'Amy America

L'Amy America adds four new men's styles to its Champion optical collection. Each frame features a 180-degree flexing hinge known as the Flex Fit 180, which is a durable system that delivers extreme flexibility for a customized fit and all-day comfort. All styles combine classic-sport aesthetics with modern geometric shapes, earthy colors and see-through temples that are fully adjustable. The new collection offers both regular and extended size fits featuring handmade acetates and stainless-steel materials.
