L'Amey America is launching two new ophthalmic styles in the Nicole Miller Resort collection and three new Niki Nicole Miller styles for tween girls. The two new acetate Nicole Miller Resort ophthalmic styles feature translucent light colours with modern shapes along with translucent temples that feature two tone metal detailing either on the core wire or on the temple. The three Niki Nicole Miller styles also feature multi-dimensional crystal coloured fronts with Nicole's prints and patterns either on the inside or outside of the temple and complemented by colour filled metal detailing. The Niki Nicole Miller Layla style features translucent two-tone acetate with a diamond pattern on the metal temple before finishing with a solid colour tip on the outside, and Nicole's pattern on the inside. 180-degree spring hinges. Colours are translucent with a choice of orange/purple, blue/pink, or green/brown. The Nicole Miller Laguna features a translucent coloured front with a lighter complimentary temple. The temples reveal a multi-coloured pattern that elevates the look, and a metal accent is featured at the hinge break. The Niki Nicole Miller Indra style is offered up in a modern and easy wear shape with exclusive Nicole Miller designed colour filled metal leaf pattern on the temples complemented by an exclusive Nicole Miller pattern. The tree colours include translucent multi grey, translucent multi purple, and crystal.
