Ditmars

L'Amey America introduces three new Nicole Miller ophthalmic styles. Each style is influenced by New York City and features richly colored acetates and edgy details. Style Ditmars offers a subtle CatEye shape with a solid colored front and marble temples in complementary colors. Available in three colorways, style Bowne features multicolored semi-transparent tortoise on the frame front with crystal temples that showcase linear raised rivet core wire studs. Style Delavan offers a two-toned metal front with a cutout detail on each corner and raised studs on the front and temples.
